

COVID-19.

An update for Eastern Benefits Group clients.

Dear EBG Clients and Friends,

As the Coronavirus / COVID-19 continues to spread globally, Eastern Insurance Group LLC is taking appropriate precautions to address the outbreak by continuing to follow guidelines from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention \(CDC\). The health and well-being of our clients and colleagues is of the utmost importance to us. With this in mind, we wanted you to know that all Eastern Benefits Group staff are working remotely, and we are fully operational. We have eliminated all in person meetings until further notice. However, we will continue to serve, inform and support you during these challenging times. Thank you for your business and please continue to reach out with any questions or support you may need.

We will also continue to keep you updated on information relevant to employee benefits and HR items. Our alert today includes health plan updates and links to access real time information from health plan carriers. Of course, if you have questions here, please reach out to our team. Please be safe.

EASTERN BENEFITS GROUP: 877-542-7267

NOTE: all employees can be reached via email using first initial last name format (ex: John Smith jsmith@easternbenefitsgroup.com)

Best regards,

Matthew F. Shadrick, Executive Vice President, Eastern Benefits Group
