Who we are

Who is providing this notice? Eastern Insurance Group LLC (“Eastern Insurance”)

What we do

How does Eastern Insurance protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to those employees who need to know it in order to provide products and services to you. We train our employees on how to handle and protect that information.

How does Eastern Insurance collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Apply for insurance.
- Pay insurance premiums.
- File an insurance claim.
- Give us your contact information.

We also collect your personal information from others such as our affiliates.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your Creditworthiness.
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you.
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you.

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your policy – unless you tell us otherwise.
